

AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF LABOUR HISTORY
MELBOURNE BRANCH

Since 1964, the Melbourne Branch of the Australian Society for the Study of Labour History has published Recorder, held meetings with guest speakers and organised or supported events to commemorate important historical anniversaries. We have organised three of the biennial National Labour History conferences, published special issues of Recorder and helped restore the public profile of Labour Day in Victoria. Our members continue to write labour history, and assist researchers and trade unionists. We are continually updating our website: <https://labourhistorymelbourne.org/>

If you wish to support our work please renew your annual membership of the Branch. It only costs $15 per year for which you will receive three issues of Recorder.
